TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

("S & A" herein), and for cause of action shows the following:

DISCOVERY CONTROL PLANI.

1. Discovery is requested to be a Level Three Control Plan as per the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

PARTIES AND SERVICEII.

2. Plaintiff, Sajhresa Hill, is a natural person, who resides in Travis County, Texas and brings this action on her own behalf and as representative of the Plaintiff Class ("Class" herein) hereinafter described.

3. Defendant, Scott and Associates, P.C. is a Texas professional corporation and may be served with process by serving its registered agent, National Registered Agents, Inc. at the following address:

National Registered Agents, Inc.
1999 Bryan St., Ste. 900
Dallas, TX 75201-3136 USA

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

III.

4. The subject matter in controversy is within the jurisdictional limits of this court. Moreover, in accordance with Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 47, the damages claimed are for monetary relief over $1,000,000.00.

5. This court has jurisdiction over the parties because Defendant is believed to maintain its principal office in Texas and the underlying event that is the basis of this suit occurred in Texas.

6. Venue in Travis County is proper in this cause under Section §15.002(a)(1) of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code as the underlying claims that are the basis of this suit occurred in Travis County.

7. Jurisdiction in this Court is proper because the events giving rise to this controversy occurred in Travis County, Texas. Jurisdiction is also proper in this Court because an action to enforce liability under the FDCPA may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction. 15 U.S.C. §1692(k)(d).

FACTS AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY
IV.

8. This is a class action lawsuit for claims under the Texas Debt Collection Act ("TDCA"), Chapter 392 of the Texas Finance Code and the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act ("FDCPA"), 15 U.S.C. §1692, et seq. Specifically, Plaintiffs allege that S &A is acting illegally as a debt collector in Texas due to its failure to maintain a $10,000.00 surety bond as required by Chapter 392, Section 101 of the Texas Finance Code.

9. Plaintiff, Sajhresa Hill, is an individual who incurred the alleged debt for goods and services used for personal, family or household purposes, originally for monies owed relating to Synchrony Bank consumer credit card. The alleged debt is thus both a "debt" as that term is defined at §1692(a)(5) of the FDCPA and a "consumer debt" as that term is defined at §392.001(2) of the TDCA.

10. Due to Plaintiff's financial circumstances, she could not pay the alleged debt, and the alleged debt went into default.

11. The alleged debt was subsequently assigned or transferred to S & A for collection.

12. S & A is in the business of collecting defaulted consumer debts and judgments originally owed to other entities. Defendant S&A is thus a "debt collector" as that term is defined at §1692(a)(6) of the FDCPA.

13. S & A is a law firm that has non-attorney employees who regularly make contact with debtors for the purpose of collection or adjustment of debts and thus a "third-party debt collector" as that term is defined at §392.001(7) of the TDCA.

14. On or about December 1, 2016, S & A mailed a letter addressed to Plaintiff in connection with the collection of the alleged debt. A true and correct copy of the letter is attached hereto as Exhibit A and is incorporated by reference.

15. The letter conveyed information to Plaintiff regarding the alleged debts, including the identity of the current owner of the alleged debts, a file number, and a balance due. The letter was thus a "communication" as that term is defined at §1692(a)(2) of the FDCPA and "debt collection" as that term is defined at §392.001(5) of the TDCA.

16. However, at the time that S & A sent the subject letter to Plaintiff (Exhibit A), S & A did not have a $10,000.00 bond on file with the Texas Secretary of State. A true and correct copy of a certificate of fact from the Texas Secretary of State indicating S & A does not have the requisite bond is attached hereto as Exhibit B and is incorporated by reference. Therefore, S & A illegally engaged in debt collection practice in the state of Texas at the time it sent Exhibit A to Plaintiff and at all times that it engaged in debt collection with other class members.

CAUSE OF ACTION
V.

Count 1 - Violation of the Texas Debt Collection Act

17. Chapter 392, Section 101 of the Texas Finance Code provides as follows:

BOND REQUIREMENT

(a) A third-party debt collector or credit bureau may not engage in debt collection unless the third-party debt collector or credit bureau has obtained a surety bond issued by a surety company authorized to do business in this state as prescribed by this section. A copy of the bond must be filed with the secretary of state.

18. S & A violated the TDCA by sending the attached letter to Plaintiff and engaging in debt collection with all class members without first obtaining and filing the required surety bond with the secretary of state.

Count 2 - Violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act - §1692(e) and §1692(f)

19. 15 U.S.C. §1692(f) of the FDCPA provides as follows:

UNFAIR PRACTICES

(a) A debt collector may not use unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect any debt.

20. The FDCPA is a strict liability statute, and only one violation of the FDCPA is necessary to establish civil liability. See In re Eastman, 419 B.R. 711, 728 (Bankr.W.D.Tex. 2009) (stating that a false representation need not be intentional to be actionable under 1692e (citing Pittman v. J.J. Mac Intyre Co., 969 F.Supp. 609, 613 (D. Nev. 1997))). As such, “the defendant’s culpability is a consideration only in computing damages under the FDCPA.” Pittman, 969 F.Supp. at 613 (citing 15 U.S.C. 1692(k)(b)).

21. S & A violated the FDCPA attempting to collect a consumer debt in Texas without having first filed a $10,000.00 surety bond with the Texas Secretary of State. At the very least, such action is unfair both to Plaintiff and to "debt collectors who refrain from using abusive debt collection practices" who are competitively disadvantaged.

22. 15 U.S.C. §1692(f)

FALSE OR MISLEADING REPRESENTATIONS

A debt collector may not use any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt.

23. In addition, in light of the fact that S & A does not have the legal right to act as a debt collector in Texas, any representations that S & A made to consumers that it was a debt collector, notwithstanding the fact it was engaged in debt collection, were false and misleading statement under §1692(f).

Count 3 - Injunctive Relief

24. Plaintiff requests that the Court grant equitable injunctive relief prohibiting and restraining S & A from engaging in debt collection in Texas without the requisite $10,000.00 bond as required by Chapter 392, Section 101 of the Texas Finance Code.

Request for Attorneys' Fees

25. Plaintiff seeks reasonable attorneys' fees as per the TDCA and FDCPA and any other statutory or common law basis.

CLASS ACTION
VI.

26. This action is brought by the named Plaintiff as a class action on behalf of herself and on behalf of others similarly situated (“Class” herein) under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 42.

27. There are common questions of law and fact that related to or affect the rights and interests of each member of the Class against the Defendant S & A.

28. Although Plaintiff does not know of the exact number of class members at this time, the Class contains debtors who received debt collection notices from S & A and/or were subject to debt collection efforts by S & A during over the last one year prior to the filing of this lawsuit.

29. The relief sought by Class are essentially identical to the individual Plaintiff. The claims of the Plaintiff are typical to the claims of the Class in that all members of the Class received debt collection notices and/or subject to debt collection efforts by S & A during the time that S & A was not authorized to engage in debt collection in Texas.

30. The Plaintiff is the representative party for the Class and she is able to fairly and adequately represent the interest of the Class. No know conflict exists between the Plaintiff and the Class.

31. The claims in this lawsuit are more properly pursued as a class action as 1) the individual prosecution of the underlying could create inconsistent results and 2) there are common questions of law and fact common to the Class.

32. All of the claims of Plaintiff in this lawsuit and the Class were caused by the same set of facts and act and omissions of Defendant.

33. The Plaintiff Class is defined as all debtors who received debt collection notices and/or were subject to collection activity by S & A in connection with consumer debts for a period beginning one year prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present.

PRAYER
VII.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff, Sajhresa Hill, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, respectfully prays that the Defendant, Scott & Associates, P.C., be cited to appear and answer herein, and that upon a final hearing of the cause, judgment be entered for the Plaintiff and the Class against Defendant as follows:

- a. The Court certify as a class all similarly situated class members as alleged in this Petition;
- b. The Court award Plaintiff, including the Class, actual and statutory damages pursuant to Texas Finance Code §392.403(a)(2);
- c. The Court award Plaintiff, including the Class, costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to Texas Finance Code §392.403(b);
- d. The Court award Plaintiff, including the Class, statutory damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692(k)(a)(2);
- e. The Court award Plaintiff, including the Class, costs and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692(k)(a)(3) and any other applicable statute or legal basis;
- f. The Court issue a permanent injunction against S & A precluding its operation as a debt collector in Texas until it complies with the applicable provision of the Texas Finance Code.

g. The Court award Plaintiff, including the Class, prejudgment and post judgment interest as allowed by law;

h. The Court grant Plaintiff, including the Class, such further relief to which Plaintiffs may be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
